

5th IAPT National Student Symposium on Physics

Indian Association of Physics Teachers and

Department of Physics, Panjab University, Chandigarh

November 10-12, 2017

To foster a culture of innovation and creativity among the young students, IAPT has instituted the annual National Student Symposium on Physics (NSSP). The yearly series started in 2013 in collaboration with the Department of Physics, Panjab University, Chandigarh. The Symposium provides a national forum to young students to present their new ideas and innovative work at an early stage of academic career. Fifth in the series, NSSP-2017, will be held during November 10 -12, 2017.
